

Local and Personal

W. N. Sullivan of Poplar Bluff is in the Cape on a business trip.

D. A. Perrin of Hayti was a Cape visitor Monday.

F. H. Stanton of Robinson, Ill., had business in the Cape Monday.

John Brown of St. Louis had business in the Cape Monday.

E. A. Haskell of Texarkana, Tex., passed through the Cape Monday.

L. N. Allen of Kennett is visiting in the Cape.

B. F. Bailey of Advance paid the Cape a business visit Monday.

C. A. Vandivort of Jackson was a Cape visitor Monday.

J. J. Dalton of Advance had business in the Cape Monday.

C. B. Page of Puxico was in the Cape on business Monday.

E. C. Trickey of Oak Ridge was a Cape visitor Monday.

H. Faust of Jefferson City was a Cape visitor Tuesday.

W. E. Graves of Rector, Ark., is in the Cape on a business trip.

H. J. Johnson of Joplin transacted business in the Cape Monday.

C. D. Bedwell of Oak Ridge was a Cape visitor Monday.

Marion Henry of Jackson was in the Cape Monday doing some trading.

Charles Hoffman of St. Louis transacted business in the Cape Monday.

Otto Fowler of Greenbrier had business in the Cape Monday.

Royce Matthews and wife of McClure were in the Cape on a shopping expedition Monday.

D. B. Raymond a traveling salesman from Memphis, had business in the Cape Monday.

S. H. Myers, familiarly known as Cyclone, of Poplar Bluff, was a Cape visitor Monday.

C. C. Shonoff and J. C. Prather of Advance were Cape visitors Monday.

Mrs. J. H. Levin of Pecos, Texas, and Mrs. J. W. Prather of Advance were visiting in the Cape Monday.

Frank Faughn of Brookport, Ill., spent Monday in the Cape on a business trip.

J. G. Smith an insurance man from St. Louis, was in the Cape Monday, and left for Puxico Tuesday morning.

J. L. LaSouse a Dukes Mixture salesman from St. Louis, paid the Cape a business call Monday.

Charles Lanpher a prominent farmer and stockman of Advance was in the Cape Monday on a business trip.

W. B. Arnold of Neelys Landing was in the Cape on a hurried business trip Monday.

James Johnson of Monett, special agent for the Fisco, is spending a few days in the Cape.

Estis Swift spent Sunday visiting his parents in St. Genevieve, and returned to the Cape Monday afternoon.

Geo. W. Dietrich of St. Louis representing the International Harvester Co., is spending a few days in the Cape this week.

William Smith, a harness and leather salesman from St. Louis is spending a few days in the Cape supplying the wants of his patrons.

S. Lowe of Hermitage, Tenn., representing the Southern Nursery of Winchester, Tenn., is in the Cape looking after the interests of his company, and the wants of his patrons.

C. Davis, Grady Davis, J. D. McAfee, R. Rains, O. Johnson, Guy Beck and M. Darter, electricians from Sikeston have come to the Cape for the purpose of beginning the construction of the new white way in this city.

Walter E. Storm of Arthur, Ill., who has been contemplating entering into the pork packing and cold storage business in this city, spent Monday in the Cape. Mr. Storm is said to be not exactly pleased with the manner in which his proposition has been received, and is thinking seriously of going to Sikeston to see what encouragement he will receive there.

J. H. Hunter of Knoxville, Mo., was a Cape visitor Monday.

Charles Stone of Herin, Ill., had business in the Cape Monday.

There will be a rural school meet in Jackson Saturday.

Henry Harris, of Lynn, Mass., is in the Cape on business.

John Shields of Farmington paid the Cape a business visit Friday.

Gottfried Borchmeyer of Snowbush, was a Cape visitor Friday.

Thomas Holder of Indianapolis is in the Cape on a business trip.

C. B. Brown of Memphis is in the Cape this week transacting business.

Otto Fowler of Greenbrier was a Cape visitor Friday.

C. F. Emery of Oran had business in the Cape Friday.

A. W. Kaiser of Chicago had business in the Cape Friday.

Maude Benefiel of St. Louis was a Cape visitor Friday.

J. H. O'Brien of Kennett had business in the Cape Friday.

Thomas A. Poe of Brownwood had business in the Cape Friday.

Tom Allen is contemplating going into the goat business.

W. F. Schade of Jackson was a Cape visitor Friday.

W. S. Truce of Charleston is in the Cape transacting some business.

Mrs. J. W. Prather of Advance, was a Cape visitor Sunday.

George L. Greathouse of Sikeston was a Cape visitor Sunday.

W. D. Davis of Commerce was a Cape visitor Sunday.

E. C. Brown of Baltimore, is in the Cape on business.

Otto Fowler of Greenbrier was a Cape visitor Sunday.

A. H. Burlison of Puxico is paying the Cape a business visit.

L. C. Goodman and Wm. Ervin of Advance are in the Cape in attendance to some business affairs.

Mott Ayres, a newspaper man from Fulton, Ky., is in the Cape looking after some business affairs this week.

W. D. Lasswell, prominent citizen of Campbell, is in the Cape looking after business affairs.

Mary Herring and Flore Russell of Farnfelt were in the Cape on a shopping trip Friday.

J. H. Young of Neelys Landing was in the Cape on a business trip Friday.

James Cox and H. V. Johns of Arbor spent Friday in the Cape looking after business matters.

James Johnson, a special agent for the Fisco, and daughter are in the Cape this week.

J. A. Reed and wife of Benton were in the Cape Friday on a shopping trip.

L. J. Pharo, a painter and decorator from St. Louis is in the Cape looking after business matters.

James Quinn of Toronto, Canada, is in the Cape transacting some business.

Wm. Menneke of Illinois was in the Cape transacting some business Monday.

Stanley G. Matthews of McClure, Ill., was in the Cape on a business trip Monday.

Guy and M. Darter of Sikeston are in the Cape preparatory to engaging in employment here.

Thomas M. Pasley and Hoe Hooks of Essex had business in the Cape Monday.

M. B. Paty and Otis Gentry left for Jackson Monday, where business matters will detain them for several days.

John Allen, a traveling salesman from St. Louis, was in the Cape Monday looking after the wants of his customers.

George Caldwell of Oklahoma City has been visiting Orren Wilson and other friends in the Cape. He returned to his home Tuesday where he is making great success as a farmer.

J. H. Schonoff prominent citizen of Advance spent Sunday in the Cape.

Charles Reed and M. Trickey of Jackson were Cape visitors Sunday.

E. L. Bond, Allenville merchant, is in the Cape on a business trip.

C. E. Brown, of Matthews, was a Cape visitor Sunday.

R. C. Moore of Blythesville, Ark., is in the Cape on a business mission.

Curtis Graham of Marion, Ill., arrived in the Cape Sunday.

Max L. Ostner, Max Ostner, Jr., and William English of Charleston were Cape visitors Sunday.

Curtis Grisham of Marion, Ill., and Wm. Cox of Ida, Ill., are in the Cape on a business trip.

J. H. Mayfield of Paducah is in the Cape looking after business matters.

James Kinder prominent man of Kinder, is in the Cape transacting business.

Mrs. Herman Klages was conveyed by Lorberg's ambulance from her home to the hospital Sunday morning.

H. A. Steger and J. H. Masters of Wittenberg were in the Cape looking after some business matters Friday.

A fine baby girl made her appearance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Myers, Friday morning. The young lady weighs ten pounds.

Dr. A. D. Blomeyer is busy these days, impressing upon his friends the fact of his candidacy for councilman in the second ward.

Oscar Lloyd of Zalma is in the Cape for the purpose of purchasing a big bill of lumber and other building material.

E. W. Landjeven returned from St. Louis Sunday where he had been for a few days buying material to be used in the construction of dredging machinery over which he has control.

Mrs. J. T. Williams and Miss E. Badgley of St. Louis, came down Sunday to visit with Mr. Williams, who is engaged in the insurance business in this city.

Miss Theresa Vogt will accompany Mrs. Gus Kopper on a trip to Big Wells, Texas, where they are going to visit a nephew of Mrs. Kopper. They will leave Tuesday morning and will probably be gone a month.

Phillip Brooks, the young man whose leg was broken a short time ago when the fire wagon collided with Dr. Schulz' automobile, was removed from the hospital and taken to his home Sunday.

Wm. Hinkle returned Friday from a trip through the southern counties where he had some business matters to attend to. While away he spent a day fishing in the spreads of Little River and reports a fine time and a big catch.

As the election approaches, A. D. Sinks livens his movements to the end that nobody shall grow forgetful of the fact that he is out for the office of councilman from the first ward to fill the unexpired term of Geo. S. Summers.

There will be a meeting of both, the Christ's Church and St. Agnes Guilds Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Harvey, and the officers are anxious that as many of the members as possible be present, for matters of importance will be brought up.

Corpora Owen Dornan, formerly of the 9th U. S. Infantry has succeeded Private Francisco Streppone in the local recruiting station. Mr. Streppone left for St. Louis a few days ago, and will receive his discharge from the army at the expiration of enlistment on April 6th.

Mrs. Oscar Thomas of 328 S. Fountain street, died Friday morning at 7 o'clock, at the age of 21 years and 11 months. Her death was caused from an attack of typhoid-pneumonia. She will be buried Sunday morning at Cedar Grove. The funeral will be conducted by Undertaker Martin Lorberg.

At the Princess Theater Saturday night will be presented a most thrilling detective story in picture form, entitled, "Chelsea 7750". Henry Dixie one of the foremost favorites of the American state characterizes the detective in a most able and pleasing manner. The play is instructive, interesting and exciting and is especially adapted to the entertainment of those who enjoy first class detective stories.

River falling. Gauge reads 19.8.

A. W. Wright of Blodgett paid the Cape a business visit Tuesday.

C. A. Shonoff of Advance was in the Cape on a business trip Tuesday.

W. E. Morrow of West Plains, had business in the Cape Tuesday.

Wm. Howe of Poplar Bluff was a Cape visitor Tuesday.

John Burkely of Scranton, Pa., is in the Cape on a business trip.

L. C. Goodman a dentist from Advance is a Cape visitor this week.

Meyer-Albert Grocery Co. is moving into its new building up near the depot.

John Arenz, a farmer from E. Cape was in the Cape Wednesday disposing of some country produce.

A. C. Ramsey left for Jackson Tuesday afternoon where he will do some work at the court house.

Charles Prather a stockman from Advance is in the Cape on a buying expedition this week.

Charles Strain, a timberman from Puxico, had business in the Cape Tuesday.

J. P. Johnson of Jonesboro, Ark., is in the Cape looking after some business affairs.

Fred Carstens, representing Ely Walker Dry Goods Co. of St. Louis was in the Cape Wednesday.

George Rathburn of Chaffee paid the Cape a visit Tuesday.

J. T. Williams of Commerce transacted business in the Cape Tuesday.

Charles Marley of Neelys Landing made a hurried trip to the Cape Tuesday.

Rev. Siberal who has been away for several days in Illinois, engaged in mission work, returned to the Cape Tuesday.

Misses Rowena Hopson, Irene Taylor, Ella Koch, and Parthena Baker, who have been ill with measles are in school again.

Mr. W. H. Sutcliffe will be the speaker at the Y. M. C. A. next Friday morning. The Y. M. C. A. quartet will furnish the music.

Dave Harris, Manager of the American Clothing Co., moved his family to the Grissom Apartments on Spanish street Wednesday.

The Commercial Club is in communication with two or three factory men who are seriously contemplating locating in this city.

J. H. Lawrence of Farmington and O. J. Snider of Fredericktown, representing the Goddard Grocery Co., are in the Cape looking after the needs of their patrons.

Reports from the Jackson election held Tuesday, that the increase of school tax carried as did also the movement for the extension of the waterworks system of that city.

The yacht Marigold passed up the river Wednesday morning, stopping at the Cape long enough to receive mail and send some telegrams. She is headed for Chicago, after spending the winter in southern waters.

Mrs. Henry Caldwell, mother of Capt. Caldwell who is in the hospital recovering from an accident in which his hip was broken, some weeks ago, left Wednesday for Little Rock, Ark., where she will join her husband. Their home is in Los Angeles, Cal., from which place they went to Little Rock to be with their daughter when they celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Gillingwater of St. Louis are visiting with their brother, Mr. J. W. Gillingwater who has recently moved to this city, from where he will work as a representative of the Roenthal Paper Co. Mr. C. E. Gillingwater is a salesman for the H. J. Hinz Co. of the 57 varieties and left Wednesday for a short business trip to southern points. He will return the latter part of the week when he will finish his visit here.

Ben Allen, the man who put Edison's talking machines to shame, has returned to the Cape after spending a few months on the farm of John Hill near Jackson where he has been resting his vocal organs and preparing the ground for spring planting. He has entered into an arrangement with Mr. Chas. Parker of Neelys Landing, where he will conduct one end of a cross cut saw in the work of cutting out some stave bolts.

W. V. Stewart of Memphis is transacting business in the Cape this week.

H. M. Morton of St. Louis is a Cape visitor this week.

Jim Woodward a big farmer from McClure is in the Cape on business.

Mrs. Arthur Lehr and children left Tuesday night for St. Louis on the steamer Cape Girardeau.

Rees Lee went South at 4:30 Wednesday morning, with a big cargo for southern points.

W. T. Williams of Commerce was in the Cape Friday attending to some business matters.

Tom Gill is making a systematic and thorough campaign in his candidacy for re-election as councilman from the fourth ward. He is well and favorably known in that capacity, and with the increased following made during his term of able service, he will unquestionably make a strong finish when the votes are counted Tuesday evening.

Dr. J. C. Vorbeck is making a hustling campaign in his efforts to secure the office of councilman from the first ward, for the long term. It would be a mighty difficult matter to discover something that would tend to disqualify the doctor from the office he seeks. He is possessed of all the qualities that go to make a good officer, and when the council is filled with such men as he, the city is to be congratulated.

A. B. Sinks, one of our most enterprising and hustling business men is directing his energies toward bringing about successful returns from the election which will be held Tuesday. He is a candidate to fill the unexpired term of Geo. S. Summers, from the first ward, he is working with untiring zeal and energy to accomplish his political purpose. He is capable, willing and energetic, and would without doubt prove himself to be an efficient and valuable officer.

Jack Morton spent the week-end at his home in Leemon, Mo.

The Juniors will hold a meeting during chapel hour Wednesday.

J. F. Robertson spent Sunday in Jackson, visiting relatives.

Prof. Joseph Vaeth of the Normal is visiting his home at St. Genevieve.

Miss Annie P. Ruble of Farnfelt, entered the Normal Wednesday.

E. M. Carter, Normal Publicity man, will spend this week in St. Louis County.

C. H. Williams of Columbia University, Columbia, Mo., was a visitor at the Normal Monday morning.

Saturday is open-evening on the baseball field, that is, any student who wishes can engage in a game.

The Clio and Sorosis Literary societies had their programs today at 3:30.

Several Normal students are attending the Rural School Meet at Jackson, today.

Do not forget the Messiah rehearsal tonight. Miss Flint expects several new members to join tonight.

The Dramatic Club will hold a special business meeting in Sorosis Hall Wednesday morning during chapel hour.

Professors Martin and Vaeth returned from St. Genevieve Wednesday, where they assisted in the school election.

The Y. M. C. A.'s new cabinet for the Spring Term met this morning in the Albert Hall parlors to discuss things pertaining to the term.

The Normal band rehearsed Tuesday afternoon. The boys are practicing for a concert to be given in the near future.

The Current History Club will meet Monday evening at the Normal in Prof. Moore's room. They are going to have a good program.

There will be no baseball practice today on account of the prevailing bad weather. The regulars will meet in the gymnasium for bunting and pitching practice.

The Benton and Webster Literary Societies will begin having their programs in the evening at 7:45 instead of the afternoon on Saturday. Both societies have good programs tonight and you would profit by attending.

JACKSON NEWS

Dr. Atkins has moved his office into the Bern Gockle building.

Miss Della Bengenhimer went to Perryville Friday to visit relatives.

William Meyer of Burfordville was in town on business Friday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brugger, twins.

Rome Sachse of Fredericktown is visiting his brother.

Mrs. Tobler and children of the Cape are visiting Mrs. Kilhne and daughters.

Clinton Goyert went to spend Sunday at the Cape.

Mrs. Albert Beattie entertained a few of her friends Sunday with a dinner.

Mrs. Theo. Overmiller left for Oran Saturday where she will visit her son and family.

Richard Behrens of the Cape was visiting relatives and friends over Sunday.

Miss Lydia Ritter left for Chaffee Sunday where she has accepted a position as a stenographer.

Miss Annie Wilhelm went to Oak Ridge, Friday to visit her sister, Mrs. Adolph Chilly.

Sherman Daley, Martin Ritter and Leon Clippard made a pleasure trip to the Cape Friday evening.

Miss Irene Behrens, who is taking a course at the Cape Girardeau business college is home for a few days.

License to marry Wm. P. Oliver, 26 and Irene Williams, 24, both of Cape Girardeau.

There will be confirmation services at the Evangelical Church, Sunday morning at which six children will be confirmed.

Richard Medley of the Cape returned home Friday after spending a few days with his mother, Mrs. Addie Medley.

Will Steck of Ziegler Ill., arrived home Monday to visit with relatives and friends. He will probably stay until the mines open again.

Martin Ritter left for Searcy, Ark., Monday after spending a few days with his mother who has been seriously ill.

Mr. Alvin Kniebert one of the stockholders of the McAtee Mercantile Co. sold his interest to Julius Sharper, Saturday.

The school teacher, Mr. J. L. Smith who was stabbed some few weeks ago is reported to be up and around again.

Mrs. Henry Puls entertained a few of her friends with a dinner party, Friday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Behrens, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Behrens and Mrs. Russell.

Sheriff Summers and family are now in the dwelling part of the county jail, having moved in Thursday. Former Deputy Sheppard and family moved in the upper part of the Wagner building on Main street.

The ladies of the Methodist church are very enthusiastic over the bazaar they have planned upon, to take place the Thursday after Easter. The ladies plan to have everything just as reasonable as possible so as to reach all purses, and are working hard to make it an assured success.

The district schools from all around had a field meet Saturday and also our grammar school joined in with them. As it was a pretty day, a large number attended. In the evening the pupils went over to the school and had their exercises in which the first consisted of music by the pupils of the Grammar school, a boys drill by the fifth and sixth grade, an essay, "Be true to yourself" by Miss Winkler of Gordonville, reading home sweet home by Miss Miller of Millerville, an essay, "Spirit of Commercialism" by Miss Wilson, of the Dog Wood school at the Rev. F. W. Carnett delivered the address and the diplomas. After the entertainment about two hundred went to the basement of the Methodist church which was beautifully decorated in their school colors. A reception was given in honor of the pupils and visitors after which they spent about two hours in amusements. The orchestra furnished music for the evening.

Try a Tribune Want Ad. It will bring results.